Once you get the invention you have been longing for a long time in your R&D department, you have to choose between filing a patent application or keeping the outcome of your research confidential. There is no unique answer to the Hamletic dilemma between patent and trade secret; and the choice could turn to be dramatic conundrum when a company is doing business internationally. Multijurisdictional protection is at the same time a great opportunity and a threat. Not all industries are affected in the same way, but a large majority have to face this critical decision-making process.

Patents vs. trade secrets: what a match!
